

Yelp Reviews using NLP

Minimum Viable Product

The purpose of this project is to use Natural Language Processing to build a system that can detect the sentiment of cafe reviews and help Yelp determine which cafes have advantages and disadvantages so they can improve. The project aims to offer similar cafes to the favorite one through the development of a recommender system.

This plot shows that many cafes reviews has a positive sentiment about the place, atmosphere and the food.